

PUBLISHING CONTRACT

AGREEMENT made as of this 15th day of September, 1987, between Krause Publications, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Publisher) and Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society whose address is 6450 Cecil Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63105 (hereinafter referred to as the Author).

WHEREAS, the parties are desirous respectively of publishing and having published a work entitled "The Early Paper Money of America" (EPMOA).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises hereinafter set forth, they mutually agree as follows:

1. The third edition of EPMOA, to be called the "Constitutional Edition," will be completed and published not later than December 31, 1988. It will be published under the direction of the Author, but will carry the copyright of Publisher, the latter party being solely responsible for distribution and sales of the title.

2. Upon publication and distribution of the third edition of EPMOA, total and unrestricted rights as respects further publication of the title, or contents thereof, will be transferred to Publisher by Author.

3. The Author, subject to the physical and mental health of Eric P. Newman, personally to do so, will be responsible for all enhancements and corrections to the descriptions and listings of issues presented in the third edition; Publisher will be responsible for developing a catalog numbering system, and providing associated valuations, which will complement the listings. The name of Eric P. Newman will be retained as the actual writer of EPMOA. A list of titles of writings of Eric P. Newman will be included.

4. The third edition of EPMOA will be published as a hard bound volume, but Publisher reserves the right to market the edition with soft covers as well, providing a substantial portion of the production is presented with attractive four-color wrapped board covers. The type sizes and styles employed, and quality of paper used will be approximately comparable to that represented in the second edition. The enhancements incorporated in the third edition will be limited to those which can be incorporated in a volume numbering a maximum of 448 pages. Full size illustrations will be retained in at least the quantity in the second edition.

5. All proceeds from the sale of the third edition of EPMOA shall be retained by the Publisher, which agrees to reimburse the Author for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with revising and enhancing the second edition contents for this new edition. In addition, the Author will be furnished 80 copies (at least 60 of which shall be hardbound) of the published book without charge, with the understanding that they will be appropriately designated for library and presentation purposes. The Publisher will also have prepared and provided to Author three interleaved copies for use as working copies. Ten copies of each new edition or changed binding shall be furnished to Author during the lifetime of Eric P. Newman.

6. As an additional consideration, the Author will receive one subscription to all numismatic periodicals, and one copy of any new numismatic book title or revised edition published by Publisher through 1997 or the lifetime of Eric P. Newman, whichever is greater.

7. The Author hereby agrees to the promotional use of his name in connection with EPMOA, insofar as the contents of that work may relate to the contents of future published periodicals or books of the Publisher.

8. The Author warrants to the Publisher that it is the sole owner of all rights granted to the Publisher, and has full power to enter into this agreement; that the work is original although research for it drew upon prior data written by others and no claim has ever been made that it is in the public domain; that it does not violate the right of privacy of any person; and that to Author's knowledge it does not infringe upon the copyright or violate any other right of any person or party. The Author agrees to cooperate with the Publisher in helping Publisher defend against any suit against the Publisher or its licensee by reason of a violation of any of these warranties.

9. Author may have final right to approve or disapprove art, layout and text changes for the third edition (other than numbering or valuations) initiated by Publisher, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Galley and page proofs shall be submitted to Author after Publisher has completed proofreading and corrected errors first.

10. This agreement shall be interpreted according to the laws and statutes of the State of Wisconsin and of the United States, regardless of the place of its physical execution.

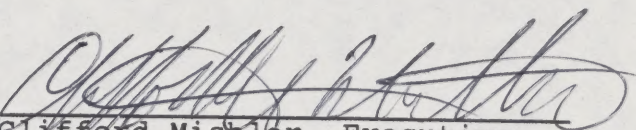

11. This agreement constitutes the complete understanding of the parties. No modification or waiver of any provision hereof shall be valid unless in writing and signed by both parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this agreement the day and year first above written.

Dear Bill Hahn: I received a bulletin from you about the new edition of the small size U.S. paper money guide. I am supposed to receive for my lifetime a copy of each numismatic publication of Krause with U.S. material in it under my contract for writing The Early Paper Money of America. I have been neglected for a long while. Will you be nice enough to send me a list of those publications you sold for the last 3 years so I can check to see what was not sent to me. I maintain a library for public purposes. You can ask Colin or Cliff about my right to these. Incidentally I wrote Cliff recently whether you were running out of copies of the Fourth edition of my book as I have enough changes to do a Fifth edition if it is timely. Eric P. Hi Eric!

I actually didn't know you had an agreement. The result of a changing of the guard accomplished this. I'll snail mail you a catalog, then you can either circle the ones you want and send it back to me or call, email or fax your request to me.

I'll make sure you're put on the list to automatically receive our U.S. numismatic books. If you review them at all, please send me tear sheets.

Thanks for your help Eric! Sorry for the inconvenience!

Dear Bill: Thank you for sending me all of the books which I requested under my arrangement with Krause. There is one matter which I wrote Cliff about which remains unanswered, namely the quantity of the 4th edition of THE EARLY PAPER MONEY OF AMERICA which remain on hand. Perhaps this is a trade secret or a company policy not to disclose but I would like to know if a fifth edition is a reality. Our 1999 prices are obsolete but I have loads of text changes accumulating, nothing spectacular but at least new. I write for pleasure and only am reimbursed for direct expense on the revision itself. Maybe you are not the one to bother on this inquiry (previously my friend Colin was my handler) and if so turn it over to the proper person. Thanks. Eric

Dear friends:

I have telephoned you and asked for a return call several times as to publications of Krause relating to American Numismatics. I have not received a response.

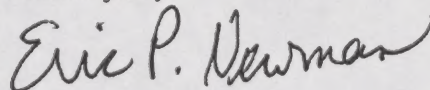

I am entitled for my lifetime under a contract with Krause of all published numismatic material by Krause related to American matter. This was in exchange for my writing of The Early Paper Money of America without payment to us or to me. In past years, I have received some of those publications, but many have not been sent. This may be due to your unfamiliarity with matters prior to your assumption of Krause's business.

In your recent advertisements, I note that U.S. Paper Money Errors (Bart, 2nd edition), U.S. Paper Money (22nd edition), and World Gold Coins (4th edition) are among those not sent to me.

Please send us a list of your numismatic books to see if there are others when you send the ones mentioned.

If you have any questions, please e-mail me at ERICNUMIS@aol.com or telephone me at 314-727-0850.

Thank you,

Dear Randy:

Your May 29, 2008 message as part of your PDF files was received by Stuart Levine and me and we appreciate your cooperation. You have done a great deal of fine work and it now begins to be evident even though you say you are shorthanded.

We are going to make the corrections and changes as simple as possible and realize that you can make changes within a page readily but want to avoid changes in pagination and movements of text and images from page to page. We will have lots of minor corrections and changes and will send them to you as rapidly as possible beginning today. This book uses complex insignia, numbering, languages, expressions, detail, etc. but corrections are nevertheless absolutely necessary as we want to have as few evident errors as possible. People crave to find errors to base adverse criticism on. Not all of the changes sent to you in the prior mailing over the years have been made. In addition as you know some changes were lost in the double page group, the box of which was apparently broken in a sorting machine and contents lost and we were asked to send it without being able to make retained copies because of the sheet size.

I would like an immediate report from your design section of the cover situation and hope you will make a gorgeous presentation. Please send it in whatever shape it may be and get it done quickly. If you use our map that is fine but if you have a better idea for the front or back cover or spine let me know. I want to see the exact text on the covers and spine also. The colors would also help as they should differ from prior editions. Would you also be kind enough to explain how the first few pages are arranged. You sent to us a page with only the name of the book and that we presume is merely a dummy. Please indicate whether there is going to be a flyleaf in front and the exact position of the elements which follow. I understand the title page and its verso but want to be sure of the pages flanking them.

I look forward to your prompt reply. Onward. Eric

Dear Randy:

Here go the changes for today, some of which were initiated by the Levines. These will only cover up through the Preface and Historical Introduction. There should not be more in this area but a few might arise. This is the most tedious part for both you and us. We are promptly working on changes for the later portions of the book. To simplify the position of the changes without sending you a whole new page with changes on it we will use page number, column number, line number and position. Some changes will require change in size or style of type which you are able to do. Some will require position changes. We have not messed with comma alternatives as long as the text can be clearly understood.

This has several major errors. The line beginning "Encompassing" has the words jammed up with no space between them. Move the last word in the line "now" to the following line and put space between the remaining words. There may be a reason why there is a space between that line and the line above but I do not think it is justified unless you put a semicolon after the word "values".

The other major error is the space between THE FRENCH COLONIES etc and THE SPANISH COLONIES etc. Close that gap.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I have not yet checked the detail to coordinate it with the rest of the book but one of the text lines is entirely wrong. The words "Grading guide" must be entirely eliminated as there is no grading guide and there are only Color Plates. That change will also have to be made on the top of all pages in the Color Plate section. Please make it.

Dear Randy:

I finished making all the corrections and additions to the book yesterday but was unable to make retention copies in time to send them by FedEx last night. I am having the copies completed today and will send them by FedEx today so that you will have them on Monday morning. You can therefore begin the corrections you already have on Monday and keep your team going continuously with the balance. Fortunately we caught a lot of old mistakes and brought things up to date with necessary additions. Both Stu Levine and his wife were very helpful in the proofreading. Please feel free to ask me further questions at any time whenever items are not clear or I can be helpful.

I look forward to the cover art details as soon as they are developed. I hope you will soon send me the changed pages for final checking and if Levine wants a further review please do the same for him. Now we are accomplishing what was always intended.

Hi Eric,

Would 25 books be reasonable to ask for? I also will not sell any. How many will they print?

I think that we can improve the photos in the 6th edition. I know where many of the rare notes reside. We can have them properly imaged.

We weren't as diligent towards the end as we were in the beginning, so maybe we will start proofreading at the back and work forward.

Best regards,

Dear Stu and Maureen:

Things are looking up as to the book because of total cooperation of everyone involved at this time.

Thanks to getting the proofs delivered to all of us promptly F & W really showed a drastic change of attitude. We must have shown them that we tried to set a standard and they ought to keep up with it.

Your quick revue of 400 plus pages located errors I missed and with your additions I decided that our minds were better than their composers and automatic type resetting machines.

I felt I should omit some of Maureen's technical corrections, particularly the ", and ," problems and some of the alignments as she indicated I might do because it was more important not to overwhelm them with minor changes when there were so many major changes. I consulted the bonzai plant you gave us and it told me less is better. I tried to improve the wording slightly on the Continental 1778 $40 counterfeits and you also cut those entries down from 4 to 2 in a proper bonzai manner.

From their recent message to me they are beginning this Monday morning, June 9, to make the additions and corrections beginning with the pages in numerical order. If you notice any new errors now do not hesitate to tell me and I will also be on the lookout.

Some of their colors on the images are completely wrong and I have pointed out a few to them. It is sort of peculiar to have a black and white printed bill come out pink or blue but that makes them a color picture.

The size of the images are usually too small but occasionally too large and even on the same page they have the front and back of the same bill in two sizes. They told me they cannot enlarge some of their images from Stacks but I cannot argue about this any more.

I am going to tell them to ask them to send further proofs to us as promptly as they can because they have time for our further review.

How many copies do you wish for yourself? I will determine how many I need for major helpers. fellow authors, family and the future but am willing to agree not to sell any if asked. You have customers to whom you might like to give a book but F & W might not want to lose any such sales. I think they should concentrate on selling to libraries everywhere as the content of this book should not go on Internet or Google. I believe they have covered this on the title verso. The retail price they said they would set is $95.

Any further comment or advice from you will be welcomed.

Eric

Subject: EPMOA 5th Edition corrections

Dear Randy:

I finished making all the corrections and additions to the book yesterday but was unable to make retention copies in time to send them by FedEx last night. I am having the copies completed today and will send them by FedEx today so that you will have them on Monday morning. You can therefore begin the corrections you already have on Monday and keep your team going continuously with the balance. Fortunately we caught a lot of old mistakes and brought things up to date with necessary additions. Both Stu Levine and his wife were very helpful in the proofreading. Please feel free to ask me further questions at any time whenever items are not clear or I can be helpful.

I look forward to the cover art details as soon as they are developed. I hope you will soon send me the changed pages for final checking and if Levine wants a further review please do the same for him. Now we are accomplishing what was always intended. Eric

Hello Eric. If you have a partial list ready, feel free to send it. I will send a cover soon, but I am having your map re-shot, as I was not crazy about the last version. You will see it before it goes away. I hope all is going well.

Dear Randy:

The design, color, images and layout of the front and back covers of EPMOA are beautiful. THERE ARE MAJOR ERRORS HOWEVER WHICH MUST BE CORRECTED.

The front map features only New York and New England and includes much of Canada. It omits the other Colonies covered in the book. Could it be adjusted to put in more of the middle Atlantic coast and not include much if any of the Canadian area.

The upper left text on the back cover is full of misleading errors. Trying to name all the colonies is unnecessary. You have left out New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Pennsylvania and that will irritate many readers. I suggest that you use "all the colonies from New Hampshire to Georgia.

The medals I was awarded do not mention the American Numismatic Association and should. I know Cliff would be irritated as well as yours truly. Perhaps someone thought ANS was the same as ANA

You mention that I wrote about Virginia coinage and the 1804 dollar but leave out all the other books and articles. Would you add something like "and many other publications" and put a comma in place of the prior "and".

Your reference to the 1913 nickels is very corny to me as they are fake but you may think it helps sell the book. I am worried about the page changes now so check them carefully.

PLEASE TELEPHONE ME IF YOU HAVE ANY COMMENTS. 314 727 0850. Eric

Dear Randy:

It was so late at night when I tried to correct your cover images by my earlier Email that I missed things and made a mistake. This constitutes ADDITIONAL necessary changes.

On the front cover when you try to adjust the map portion perhaps my name probably should have a white background instead of it being murky.

You used the word "coveted" in the first part of the back cover. I presume you meant "corrected" or "current" but leave the word out altogether as you later use "current valuations".

I listed Rhode Island as missing but it is there but that does not make any difference because the wording should now be changed to "all the American Colonies from New Hampshire to Georgia" rather than my prior suggestion. Then you do not have to list any more there.

You later use the word "photographs" which is not technically true and it should be "images"

You should telephone me immediately on reading and digesting these two Emails because these matters are critical and show too many errors in a very important part .

Good news! There is an article in the E-sylum that states that the 5th edition has arrived at Krause. I would very much like to see a copy before I leave for Italy on the 5th.

Dear Randy:

After five years of working together, the 5th Edition of The Early Paper Money of America is finally ready for sale by you. I have not seen a copy as yet, but I hope it will be a major success for your firm. I am told that many are awaiting it. I think it will be helpful if I mention a few matters yet to be cleared up.

We are to receive from you 50 copies for us, for my relatives, major helpers, not-for-profit numismatic educational institutions, and my fellow numismatic authors with whom I consistently exchange numismatic writings. None will be sold by us or given to anybody which we believe will sell them. We welcome your suggestions as to those you feel should have such gifts from us as we do not wish to leave any deserving party out.

Stuart Levine is to receive 25 copies for his valuation work and these will not be sold by him but probably some might be given away to important customers of his.

You are to return to us the early American map we loaned to you.

There has always been an arrangement between us that we are to be reimbursed for out of pocket expenses connected with the preparation of the book and nothing for my personal services in researching for or writing the book.

We will be glad to continue to help you in any reasonable way with the sales promotion of the 5th Edition.

We have a thought that might be mutually beneficial to both us. Our out-of-pocket expenses involve computer messages and composition, duplicating, faxing, our curator's work for researching and proof reading, telephone, mail, shipments, ink pads, paper and other supplies. No office or library occupation expenses are to be included. The calculation will be a workout to assemble, but we have five years of detail in our files. We do not know if you recovered any money from the unfortunate loss of corrected proof sheets sent to you by us in accordance with your instructions through UPS for which we retained no copies at your request and which had to be done over again, requiring much rereading and memory to replace.

October 8, 2008

Our suggestion is that instead of you paying us anything for such expenses you transfer your copyright for the book to us. We gave the copyright to your predecessor owner without charge. You would retain all rights to the 5th Edition, including publication of additional copies and protecting the content of the 5th Edition from being knocked off. We would agree not to publish a sixth or other edition or sell the copyright for at least three years. We are a not-for-profit operation, as you know, and have no motive to make money out of the book in the future. All we want is to have the book used for educational purposes and collector enjoyment.

We will be glad to discuss any items in this letter with you or any of your associates and wish you great success in the sale of the 5th Edition.

Sincerely,

Dear Randy:

I am disappointed that I have not yet received a copy of the 5th Edition of The Early Paper Money of America.

Months ago you sent to us at our request a proof of the front and back cover of the book. I immediately sent you corrections and asked for a proof of the changes. It never came. I never saw any of the final corrected page proofs sent to China.

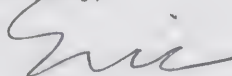

On 9/28/08 the E-Sylum announced the publication of the 5th edition, apparently based upon data from Tom Michael of your firm's Numismatic News stating that the book "has finally arrived at our offices here in Iola and will soon be available for sale."

I immediately telephoned you asking for a copy and you told me that about half a dozen copies had arrived a few days before. Stuart Levine as valuation editor also asked me for a copy. It was my understanding from you that a copy had been sent to me by priority mail and one was sent to Levine. Levine received his copy on 10/3/08. I have received nothing as yet.

You also told me that the bulk shipment from China would be in Iola around the middle of October 2008.

I have fully cooperated with you at all times in connection with this book and am very disappointed that circumstances at your end have prevented you from doing the same. Please straighten matters out.

Sincerely,

On receiving a copy of SPANOR 5th from Telzoff of Krause I telephoned her. She confirmed that the 75 books requested were on the distrib list.

I asked why she sent with her 10/13/08 letter Instructions for Correcting Reprints and she said that was routine with a "check-in" or review copy. I said that the book was already printed and that nothing could be done as I understood it. She tried to get Randy but he was not answering his telephone.

I told her about the Williams request for the C4 Convention in November in Boston. She knew nothing about it.

I thanked her for the book and told her to call if I could help.

Randy telephoned me.

Told me 75 books would be sent from Ancient where the shipment would probably arrive next week.

He asked me how I liked the book. I told him the covers were beautiful, no typos in 25 pages I read, insufficient color images, many colored images were too light and faded, Appendices laid out better.

I should send out thank you copies

He received my Williams Email and asked me who dealer in Boston area was. I suggested Charles Davis. He will contact Williams to see what is best.

Told him I would probably not write anything more on the subject as only prices would be absolute and loads of new images in color were needed.

Thanked his team for doing a good job on many of the features.

Dear Eric,

Sadly, yesterday I was informed I am one of the latest 16 "restructuring" budget cuts. This was a bit of a shocker after 22 years. The next few months be will be a transition period for my family as I try to figure out what comes next. We are fortunate to have supportive family members like Cliff & Sally. If there is anything you need from this department, please get in touch with George Cuhaj. Colin is joining me in the exit march. One positive note is that - against all odds - I got your book done and it will be released on the market any day. I am truly proud of this and I hope it sells out. Stu Levine is already storing up info for the 2010 edition. I hope it happens, but with the way things are going, I would not place a large bet! I enjoyed working with you.

Dear Randy:

I was very sorry to learn of your elimination in the so called restructuring of the firm which once was the real Krause. I was not particularly surprised in view of the delaying actions of the main office in preventing you from doing what you felt was best for the project which we worked on so hard for such a long time. At least it was completed. The delays unfortunately caused the date of publication to be delayed until the economic conditions worsened and sales may have been dampened.

If there is any way in which I can be helpful in any new enterprise you may seek please let me know.

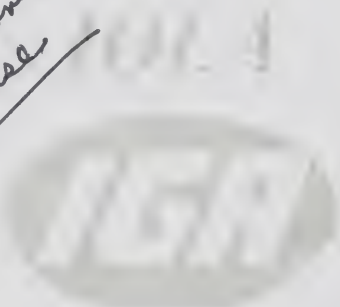

By the way can you return the map I loaned to your firm. I hope you previously sent the appropriate parties a copy of the letter we wrote to you about the firm's reimbursement obligation.

If you want encouragement please read the mottoes on Continental Currency.

Hi Eric,

Recently I requested the final PDF files of the 5th edition from Randy Thern. Since then, Randy has been terminated and I have heard nothing regarding the PDF's. Please see if you can get F&W to send them to me. It will speed the next editing and correction process immensely. If we have the PDF's we can perform global searches and with the results standardize all terms, definitions and references throughout the text. Also, it will allow me to have the values of all the notes in a computerized form, greatly enhancing my ability to update prices on an ongoing basis.

Re: 5th edition of The Early Paper of America

The above mentioned book is now being sold by you after deliveries began in late October 2008. From what I have learned the book has been well received and is selling well. I hope it continues to do so.

I would ordinarily write to Randy Thern, the editor with whom I worked for about 5 years on the project but he is no longer an employee of your firm. If I should send a copy of this letter elsewhere please advise me.

On October 8, 2008 I wrote a letter to your Randy Thern and have not received a written response to portions of it. I believe you may have a copy of this letter but I am enclosing a copy of it for convenience.

The copies of the book to be received for me as the author and for Stuart Levine as the valuation editor have been delivered. The original of the early American map I loaned for the cover has been returned.

The balance of the matters in the letter have not yet been responded to. Will you be kind enough to do so? If you wish to discuss the matter by telephone my number is 314 727 0850. If you wish to respond by Email my address is ERICNUMIS@AOL.COM

This letter is written on behalf of ERIC P. NEWMAN NUMISMATIC EDUCATION SOCIETY (a Missouri not for profit corporation) of which I am president and in which my numismatic writing is a part. Dear Mr. Newman,

Your fifth edition of The Early Paper Money of America arrived safely at my desk the week before Thanksgiving. It is a very handsome volume and will be a valuable addition to our collection.

I have not seen examples of many of the items from Virginia that are illustrated in the volume. They are quite fascinating and will be especially helpful to numismatic researchers. Students and collectors of Virginia currency are in your debt for the fine work you have done over the years to document Virginia paper money and coinage.

Thank you again for thoughtfulness. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of further assistance. If you should visit Richmond, I would be very please to give you a tour of the archives.

Dearv Eric,

Your book came up in a discussion with Randy Thern on Friday as he is in Iola Hospice care for three months after a very bad experience with a chain saw, ladder and large tree limb. Oh, he was all by himself and tried to do the quicky limb removal at the trunk line instead of starting out with the leafy sprays. He hardly remembers being air transed to Theda Clark.. Two smashed ankles and only one shoulder.

Anyways the subject really was about getting your book in full color which neither of us will have anything to do with I would have to guess. The added color really spices it up from my point of view. I did hear a rumor about the rights to it being reviewed or questioned for the future.

Anyway I just had a 3 day lockup in the local hospital.....Iron Deficiency Anemia.....really knocks one on his butt. minor complications in my colon from my radium treatments for prostate cancer.....life goes on.....

Then on Saturday I received a super package in the mail from none other than the dean of USA Numismatistics.....Superb...thank you sir.

I had not heard from you for such a long time that I finally pressured George a bit more and by some miracle he found me a dusty copy which I will forward to another good friend now.

I have been sharing my thoughts with John Mussell, editor of Medal News and Medal Yearbook in the UK.....so far the olde non-commercial didley do rights in the Miniature Branch of their national OMRS are out to skin me butt if they ever find out just whom I am.

Another great case of the chemical reaction;

Society politicals X Commercial sector = ??? Well Napoleon could explain the results.

Cheers my good friend on such a nice sunny holiday..... enjoy it.

Iola WI 54990 0001

Dear Mr. Tappa:

This letter is not pleasant for us to write but is addressed to you as publisher because prior letters to others in your organization have not been responded to.

The 5th edition of The Early Paper Money of America was published by your organization in late 2008 after five years of work by your organization along with ours. Our arrangements with Krause for its publication were always clear and undisputed with the prior owners and the present owners of Krause. We were to receive for my life time all publications of Krause containing American numismatic material. We were to receive from Krause all out of pocket expenses for the revision preparation work. I as author was to receive no personal compensation for the writing and editing. You may confirm this with Clifford Mishler (former CEO of Krause), Randy Thern (your former employee until late 2008) or anyone else you select. The revision took about five years of work and the delays in completion were due to Krause.

The 5th edition of The Early Paper Money of America was recently awarded in a national selection the finest book written on American paper money and was awarded 15th place in all American numismatic publications written up to the present.

In a letter to your former employee Randy Thern dated 10/8/08 (copy enclosed) we suggested that instead of you paying us out of pocket expenses that you assign the copyright of the book to us, reserving to you an opportunity to sell as many of the 5th edition as you could. Apparently he turned the matter over to a superior who did not respond. Then in a letter to your Debbie Bradley dated 11/28/08 (copy enclosed) we reminded your firm that no answer had been received to the 10/8/08 letter and asked for a response. Again there was no reply by anyone from your firm.

We have delayed writing to you again because we had hoped that sales of the book might encourage your response. We have never been informed by you as to how well the book was selling or the quantity printed.

If you do not wish to consider assigning the copyright for the book to us we are undertaking to obtain what is due us under the arrangement. We have determined that a reasonable minimum amount of out of pocket expenses is $5,000. We explained in our 10/8/08 letter what was included. If we charged you with all our applicable computer time and curator's time for the five years it would be much much more. Your work was often delayed for priority of other projects, for assignment of your employees to other matters, for lack of sufficient attention, for making many mistakes, for considering abandoning the project altogether, etc.

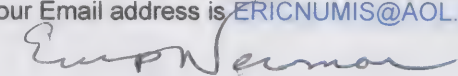

As to your furnishing us with your American numismatic publications for my lifetime you were substantially and steadily neglectful after many requests from us. You failed to send us steadily your monthly magazine PAPER MONEY and our holdings of it are in shambles even though your editor tried to fill us in with missing numbers. Slabaugh's last book on Confederate Currency was requested several times with no result. Numismatic News and COINS were not sent until very recently. The CP version of Haxby's material which you are now advertising should be sent to us whenever it is ready. There probably are other items.

We know that you are in the profit making business and undertook to publish our book for decades for that reason. On the other hand we do all we can for public enjoyment and education on a not for profit basis. You should promptly perform your commitment to us and help us continue to devote our efforts to the numismatic public. Both activities are necessary.

We believe we have been friendly and discreet in our problem with you so far and hope we will be able to solve it before we consider taking other options. We want a prompt answer from you.

Our telephone is 314 727 0850 and our Email address is ERICNUMIS@AOL.COM in case you have any questions.

Hello Eric,

Last week I received a letter from you bringing to our attention several outstanding issues with our relationship. I apologize for any confusion on our part. As you can imagine, when non-traditional arrangements such as this are made with prior staff members, details can get lost in the shuffle.

To address your points:

- We are in the process of transferring the copyright of your book back to you. I have asked the staff member who coordinates this for an update.
- We have ensured that you are on the list to receive a complimentary subscription to all five numismatic magazines we publish. (Per your letter, however, we do not publish a magazine called "Paper Money.")
- We will be sending you a package containing our latest numismatic book and/or digital materials.

Thank your for your patience, and please do not hesitate to contact me again if for some reason sufficient progress on these matters is not being made.

Regards,

Scott

Hello Eric,

After sending my email earlier this week, I did confirm that you are on our complimentary subscription list for our five magazines for many, many years. Also confirmed that the copyright transfer is pending.

Thanks,

You were right to point out that you did not publish PAPER MONEY as I made an error in mentioning that name. It should have been BANK NOTE REPORTER to which all my comments applied.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience. Thanks. Eric

I was on vacation and did not have an opportunity to examine all of the publications you sent according to our arrangement. They will be very useful for our library. If you can find examples of the Bank Note Reporter for the years 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007 that would be very helpful and important to us.

We look forward to your processing the transfer of the copyright of the Early Paper Money of America to us. We continue to see the extensive use of the 5th edition content in other literature and advertising. We hope this stimulates sales of it for you. Thanks for your continued cooperation.

It has been over one year since the 5th edition of THE EARLY PAPER MONEY OF AMERICA has been published and distributed for sale by your firm.

You will recall that in your 8/17/09 message to us you stated that the assignment to us of the copyright to that book was in process. We confirmed this mutual understanding on 8/19/09. We now ask you to complete this transfer promptly.

As we indicated previously your company will still have the right to sell, advertise, promote and distribute as well as to protect your rights related to the 5th edition. Our right to the assigned copyright will relate only to the use and improvement of all or parts of the book's content and hopefully to the subsequent improved publication and distribution of it or them.

Receiving from your firm the various American related numismatic publications for my personal lifetime as previously agreed will continue to be sent to us and to be read as well as appreciated by us.

Please ask your appropriate staff member or your legal department to prepare an appropriate document to complete the matter. Please make it as simple as you can.

Thank you for your continued cooperation.

Hi Eric,

It does not appear we have received the registration from the copyright office yet, and it is a slow process Here is an update from our staffer who coordinates copyright:

Scott -

I still have this on my "follow-up" list. Since the copyright is in progress (with KP as the claimant), I have to wait for the registration to come back before I can submit it for a transfer. As soon as I receive a registration number, I will initiate the transfer. The copyright office is extremely slow - the payment for this copyright appeared on our January 2009 statement (I have many applications older than this one.) I'll keep you informed and act on it immediately once it is received. At that time, I will need a signed document (a letter to Eric Newman will suffice) that indicates the transfer of copyright. Thanks -

Dear Stu:

I spoke with George Cuhaj at Krause today and he said he had ordered for you the PDF files of the 5th edition of Early Paper Money of America and that it was apparently in process. I asked him if I should include it in the letter I am writing to his supervisor (Debbie Bradley) about my unanswered 10/05/08 letter to Randy requesting the copyright. Cuhaj said not to mention the PDF matter in my new letter. I then spoke to her and am writing her a letter only about the copyright matter in exchange for my out of pocket expense.
Apparently the book is selling well from reports to the sales reps of Krause. Eric

A Rich American Paper Money History

This fifth edition of The Early Paper Money of America pairs historical context with coveted collector pricing for paper money issues starting with Massachusetts Bay in 1690 and expanding to the British colonies of Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia.

Financing of the American Revolution is explored in the issues of Continental Currency by the Continental Congress and the individual State issues during the Revolutionary War. The post-revolution era is covered with listings of script notes and other local issues.

A full listing of issues is accompanied by 1,100 spectacular photographs and current valuations, reflecting a true market surge.
